Last 30 Days of Season 24

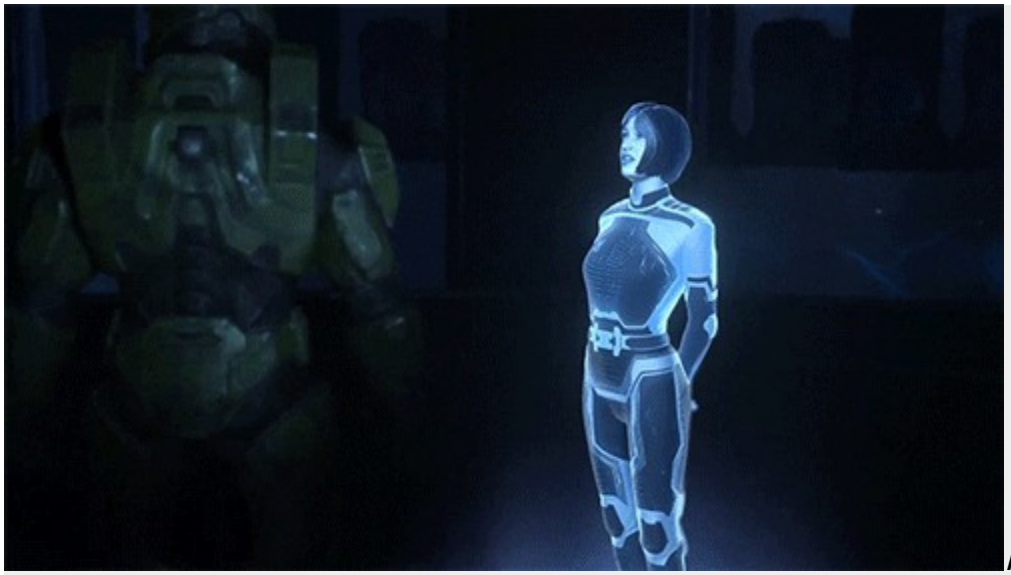
Announcements NerdyBirdy Dec 3, 2021

Looking Back on 2021

Happy December, everyone! We’re almost at the end of 2021, and what a year it’s been!

From the release of new flagship games, to finding new friendships and community, it’s been an exciting year for the Xbox Ambassadors. We’d like to welcome all the new Ambassadors who joined the program this year, as well as extend a happy congratulations to all Xbox Ambassadors who celebrated their anniversaries.

Thank you for all that you do to promote friendship and goodwill within the Xbox community, and for helping to make gaming more inclusive.



Halo Infinite. Image: 343 Industries

As we inch ever closer to the end of the year, we've made a list of the year's top games that you can play with your family and friends over this December. These games are available on Xbox Game Pass and can be played on your Xbox console or PC.

1. Halo Infinite: After over a year of anticipation, Halo Infinite is available this December on Xbox Game Pass! Join your friends in multiplayer or work your way through Halo's immersive world and new gameplay.
2. Battlefield 2042: An entirely new arsenal of weapons, dynamic new environments and weather, and Battlefield's signature gameplay return in this new futuristic edition.
3. Forza Horizon 5: Forza's new multiplayer even allows players to compete cross-platform from Xbox to PC. Race your friends across a beautiful and diverse open-world environment.
4. Age of Empires IV: Battle across continents and history as you command new armies from Microsoft's first official Age of Empires release in over fifteen years!
5. Call of Duty Vanguard: What do you get when you mix Call of Duty's classic World War II gameplay with zombies? One of the year's most exciting new multiplayer games.

Forza Horizon 5. Image: Playground Games

The Best That’s Yet to Come

The month of December is always an exciting time for gaming as developers and studios release the year’s last slate of new games. This year’s no different. The following are all debuting later this month on Xbox or PC.

Chorus. Image: Fishlabs

1. Chorus: Save the universe as you guide Nara, a pilot with a sentient starfighter through the galaxies with a unique arsenal of gatling guns, laser cannons and missile launchers.
2. Justice Chronicles: A beloved and classic RPG is finally coming to Xbox and PC this month! Lead Kline through different adventures in a richly designed world with a wide mix of characters and enemies.
3. The Letter: A Horror Visual Novel: Encompassing seven chapters and over 700,000 words, The Letter is a truly monumental visual novel that is bound to keep you up at nights with its terrifying horror movie inspired story.
4. Gardener's Path: A unique take on the classic turn-based puzzle game, Gardener's Path will have you fighting giant insects to protect your underground gardens.
5. Ever Forward: Another adventure puzzle game, Ever Forward takes you through the imagination of Maya, where you'll uncover the mystery of her dark past and secrets.

Ever Forward. Image: PM Studios

#XAGiveThanks

The end of the year is a perfect time to celebrate the relationships and friendships that make gaming such a special community. We want to highlight and thank the Xbox Ambassadors who take the time to share positivity and promote such a friendly, welcoming, and inclusive environment. Stop by the Missions page for prompts to share who and what you are thankful for with our December hashtag!

Share Your Story

The Xbox Ambassadors program has always been driven by our incredible community of Ambassadors. That includes the Xbox Ambassador Blog. Our blog highlights the best writing surrounding gaming and the Xbox community. Whether you've got stories from your times gaming with your friends, or ideas on why representation and accessibility are important in gaming, we want to hear them!

We're always accepting content submissions that are relevant to gaming and the Xbox Ambassadors community and are aligned with the program's principles. Learn more about submitting your writing to the Xbox Ambassadors Blog.

Enjoy the rest of your year!